The CollegeBound Foundation is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to encouraging and enabling Baltimore City public school students to go to college. One method by which we accomplish our mission is by awarding scholarships to worthy students. Together with the generosity of the individuals, organizations, foundations and businesses sponsoring these awards, CollegeBound hopes to lighten the burden of financing a college education.

Eligibility

The CollegeBound Foundation seeks to lower the cost of a college education for Baltimore City public school students. Competitive scholarship applicants must excel academically, show exceptional leadership potential and make an impact on their communities through service to others.

To be eligible, applicants must be seniors at a Baltimore City public high school. Applicants must also be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Current college students are not eligible to apply.

Directions

The 2011-12 CollegeBound Competitive Scholarship and Last Dollar Grant application is only available online through the STARS Online portal at

2011 CollegeBound Foundation Competitive Scholarships

Below and on the following pages are details and criteria for the Last Dollar Grant and the competitive scholarships for our 2011 scholarship season. Please read carefully and note required materials for every scholarship for which you are applying; each scholarship has different criteria. If all the required materials are not received for a particular scholarship, you will not be considered for that award.

Apply for as many awards as you desire. The competitive scholarship awards are organized into six categories to simplify your search: Career and College Major Scholarships, High School Scholarships, Merit Scholarships, Community Service Scholarships, Unique Population Scholarships and University Scholarships.

2011 Last Dollar Grant

The Last-Dollar Grant is a need-based award for Baltimore City public high school graduates whose expected family contribution and financial aid package total less than the cost to attend college. Students who are awarded a CollegeBound Foundation Last-Dollar Grant are eligible to receive a grant up to $3,000 per year, renewable for up to five (5) years of college or the maximum amount of $15,000. This money is gift money which does not have to be repaid.

Eligibility:

- Must be a 2011 graduate of a Baltimore City public high school.
- Family income must not exceed $75,000 annually. If unmet need is greater than $5,000, student must provide documentation detailing how the gap will be financed.
- Student must contribute at least 15% of college cost of attendance through self-help (student loans and/or work study).
- Be accepted to and attend a four-year Maryland college/university.
- You MUST attend the Transition to College Workshop and the Annual Scholars’ Luncheon, both in the summer 2011.
- You also MUST attend any other retention program events scheduled throughout the year.

To be considered you must include the following supporting documents on time:

- Student Aid Report (SAR) (for a copy, go to www.fafsa.ed.gov or call 1-800-4-FED-AID/1-800-433-3243).
- Acceptance letter from the college/university you will attend.
- Financial Aid Award Letter (FAAL) from the college/university you will attend.
- Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) Notification Letter if applicable (go to www.mhec.state.md.us or call 410-260-4500 for a copy).
- Recent high school transcript through the first semester of your senior year.

The D’Anna family, owners of Mars Super Markets, created this scholarship in memory of Carmen V. D’Anna.

Hy Zolet Student Athlete Scholarship

Four (4) $1,000 scholarships (renewable)

This award was created to honor and celebrate the life and accomplishments of Hy Zolet, a high school and college athlete. All who came into contact with Hy, and his love of life, integrity, work ethic and unsung hero mentality, walked away a better person for knowing him. Through this scholarship, we will strive to identify men and women who exemplify the qualities that Hy exhibited every day.

Lorenzo Felder Scholarship

One (1) $1,000 scholarship (non-renewable)

The Lorenzo Felder Scholarship, awarded by the ONOSE, is intended to support the efforts of an African American male who is graduating from a Baltimore City public school. Lorenzo Felder was a founding member of the ONOSE, a local organization of African American men focused on social endeavors. Lorenzo sought to elevate our mission by not only paying back our social obligations but serving our community. In the spirit of giving back to our younger generation, the ONOSE seek to support the college efforts of a “rising scholar.”

Reverend Nate Brooks Scholarship

Two (2) $100 scholarships (non-renewable)

As a former educator and CollegeBound alumni, Reverend Nate Brooks recognizes the importance of reading and literacy among students—especially among male students. The purpose of this scholarship is to award two male students with funds toward books as an effort to encourage the importance of reading.

The SHERO Scholarship

Up to five (5) scholarships ranging from $1,500 to $10,000 (renewable)

The SHERO Scholarship Program seeks to provide financial assistance to qualified high school young women who, without this assistance, may not otherwise have the option of pursuing a college education. Sponsored by the Maryland’s Women and Philanthropy Collaborative, which recognizes unsung “SHEROs” in our community, each young woman selected for this scholarship will have demonstrated through her own actions her understanding of the value of giving her time and talent to those in need.

Criteria: You must: be a female who has demonstrated an understanding of the value of giving your time and talent to help others; have verifiable community service; submit at least one (1) reference from an individual who can attest to your commitment to helping others; submit an essay (minimum of 500 words) describing how your pursuit of a college education will assist you in achieving your personal goals and becoming a productive citizen committed to your community; be accepted to and attend a 2- or 4- year college or university in Maryland; and demonstrate financial need.
